About Choregus Productions Outreach

The Choregus Productions Outreach Program reaches up to 7,000 area students and adults yearly, providing the opportunity to engage with world-class artists by means of educational performances, lecture/demonstrations, master-classes, and school residences. The Choregus Outreach Program is a past recipient of the Oklahoma Governor's Arts in Education Award.

Featuring the Yale Whiffenpoofs,

the world's oldest and best known collegiate a cappella group. The "Whiffs" began as a senior quartet in 1909 that met for weekly concerts at Mory's Temple Bar, the famous Yale tavern. Today, the group has become one of Yale's most celebrated and hallowed traditions...and has added a female vocalist. The Whiffenpoofs repertoire ranges from traditional college songs to original compositions to hits from every decade. The group's unique blend of musicianship, choreography, and showmanship has entertained at venues like New York's Lincoln Center, the White House, the Salt Lake Tabernacle, Oakland Coliseum, Carnegie Hall and the Rose Bowl. They've appeared on such television shows as Jeopardy!, The Today Show, Saturday Night Live, 60 Minutes, Gilmore Girls, The West Wing, and Glee.
